Job Opportunity

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT SPECIALIST III – LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE CENTER

Do you get excited developing leadership capacities in undergraduate students? Do you enjoy applying leadership theory to practice? Are you ready for a challenge? If so, this position may be for you!

The SDS III is responsible for supporting the oversight, advising, and administration of the Leadership and Service Center (LSC). The position also has the unique opportunity to coordinate the newly established Division of Student Affairs I Lead Maroon program, an undergraduate leadership certificate program, as well as direct the StrengthsQuest™ program which serves the entire university. This position advises Aggie Replant and Gilbert Leadership Conference and supervises one graduate student. The Leadership and Service Center strives to empower students and staff to become effective leaders and active citizens through intentional programs, services, advising and advocacy.

POSITION INFORMATION

Position Overview

- Responsible for oversight of I Lead Maroon – a newly established undergraduate leadership certificate program within the Division of Student Affairs. The purpose of I Lead Maroon is to guide participants in developing their identity as leaders through engaging in leadership development, mentoring, education, and training while at Texas A&M University.
- Responsible for oversight of StrengthsQuest™ training and related initiatives. The mission of the StrengthsQuest™ program at Texas A&M is to facilitate students’ achievement of academic, career, and personal success through identification, development, and utilization of their top five Strengths.
- Serves as primary advisor to a university-sponsored leadership or service student organization such as Replant, an organization which is committed to planting tree seedlings in the Bryan/College Station communities as well as in wildfire-damaged areas surrounding Bastrop, TX.
- Guides leadership, service, and social justice initiatives and programs for the Leadership and Service Center. Duties may include short-term consulting and/or facilitating workshops for student groups, staff, campus departments, and in-class teaching responsibilities.

Required Education & Experience

- Bachelor’s degree. Five years of experience in student affairs work or related specialty area with a bachelor’s degree or three years of experience in student affairs work or related specialty area with a master’s degree.

Preferred Education & Experience

- Master’s degree in higher education, student affairs or related field from an accredited institution. Three or more years post-graduate experience in higher education, student affairs, leadership development or service learning.

Salary and Benefits

- Commensurate with excellent state benefits.

APPLY TODAY!

Apply at https://jobpath.tamu.edu/postings/73993 For more information, email Lisa Villalobos at lvillalobos@stuact.tamu.edu.

ABOUT STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Student Activities provides official recognition, consultation, and training to over 1,000 student organizations and advisors, and serves as administrators for various campus processes, programs, and awards. The department directly advises 34 sponsored and affiliated organizations and provides leadership, service, and involvement opportunities for all students at Texas A&M University. For more information visit https://studentactivities.tamu.edu/areas

Texas A&M University is committed to diversity. It is our policy not to discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, veteran status, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law. Furthermore, we will maintain a work environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression.